

TABLE OF CONTENTS

The ATSA Practice Standards and Guidelines for the evaluation, treatment and management of adult male sexual abusers have been organized in the following manner. The letters A, B, C, D, E, and F refer to the six domains in which the Standards and Guidelines are grouped.

- A. Clinical Membership Requirements
- B. General Training and Qualification
- C. Professional Conduct
 - Clients
 - Other Professionals
- D. Evaluation
 - General Considerations
 - Types and Sources of Information
 - Corroboration of Self-report
 - Psychophysiological Testing
 - Special Considerations
- E. Intervention
 - Relapse Prevention Knowledge and Skills
 - Cognitive Restructuring
 - Empathy Enhancement
 - Interpersonal Skill Training
 - Emotional Management
 - Sexual Arousal Control
 - Family and Other Social Support Networks
 - Generalization
- F. Risk Management in the Community
 - Working with Probation/Parole Officers
 - Working with Child Welfare Workers
 - Working with Support Persons
 - Contact with Children
 - Family Reunification and Visitation

Additional information that may be useful to ATSA members and other readers of this document are included in the Appendices. Commonly used terms in the field are defined in the Appendix E for those who may not be familiar with these terms.

Appendix A: Phallometry

Appendix B: Viewing Time

Appendix C: Polygraphy

Appendix D: Medications for Managing Sexual Arousal

Appendix E: Glossary of Terms