

ATSA BOARD OF DIRECTORS
Organization and Development Representative
2021

ATSA leadership consists of an Executive Board of professionals who bring a range of expertise to guide and provide governance for the association in fulfilling its mission, and to provide vision and support for the Executive Director and ATSA staff.

Term

3 Years

Position Description

The Organization and Development Representative is an elected position to the ATSA Executive Board of Directors. This position serves as the Chair of the Organization and Development Committee. The role of the Organization and Development Representative is to encourage, guide, and support chapter development and ongoing chapter governance. The Organization and Development Representative also participates as a full member of the ATSA Board and may chair and participate in other ATSA committees if interested.

The duties of the Organization and Development Representative include the following:

- Represent the interests, concerns, and recommendations of the chapters, (typically conveyed by the Chapter Presidents) to the ATSA Executive Board of Directors.
- Represent concerns and convey information to the chapters from the ATSA Office and/or the ATSA Board.
- Encourage, support, and guide chapter development and ongoing chapter governance.
- Facilitate communication, sharing of resources and ideas, and collaborative ventures among and between the ATSA chapters.
- Assist chapters in enhancing their viability and visibility through chapter membership growth and representation on ATSA committees.
- Encourage and support partnerships between the chapters and ATSA in accomplishing the shared mission and goals.
- Update the Chapter Formation and Operating Guidelines.
- Collaborate with other ATSA committees to ensure chapters' concerns are represented.

Qualifications

A candidate for the Organization and Development Representative on the ATSA Executive Board of Directors is a member in good-standing, is familiar with ATSA's strategic plan, is dynamic and passionate about the organization, has varied experience working collaboratively with multiple organizations, and has participated in an ATSA chapter.

Ideal candidates will have the following:

- Strong organizational and leadership skills.
- Excellent written and verbal communication skills.
- Experience with the ATSA chapters.
- A spirit of collaboration and willingness to work within the committee and board structure and with the ATSA Executive Director and ATSA Office to address and promote ATSA's mission and vision.

The Association for the Treatment of Sexual Abusers is an international, multi-disciplinary, not-for-profit organization dedicated to preventing sexual abuse through research, education, and shared learning. ATSA promotes evidence-based practice, public policy, and community strategies that lead to the effective assessment, treatment, and management of individuals who have sexually abused or are at risk to abuse.